The compositions are ordered numerically according to their approximate level of difficulty. The note and staff sizes are larger than normal to compensate for the possible long distances between the students' eyes and the organ music racks. Pedal parts and manual changes are optional. Exceptions requiring pedal or manual changes are indicated by obbligato. Compositions based on hymn tunes include both the title of a commonly used text, given first, as well as the tune name, which appears beneath in uppercase letters. We welcome comments regarding this volume or others in this method, as well as suggestions for new volumes.
