The compositions are ordered numerically according to their approximate level of difficulty. The note and staff sizes are larger than normal to compensate for the possible long distances between the students' eyes and the organ music racks. Pedal parts are optional. Exceptions requiring pedal are indicated by obbligato. The duets, which are optional, were composed by Alfred V. Fedak. Compositions based on hymn tunes include both the title of a commonly used text, given first, as well as the tune name, which appears beneath in uppercase letters.
